

Parent To Parent of NYS Latino Group

Did you know we have a group specifically for parents with children with special needs who speak Spanish? Discover a welcoming community tailored to the unique needs of Hispanic parents raising children with disabilities. Our parent group provides a culturally sensitive space where you can share experiences, gain knowledge and establish connections with others facing similar challenges. Come join us where we will share information, resources and find the support you need while raising a loved one with special needs and/or medically fragile, regardless of the person's age.

Monday- April 15th, 2024 from 7pm-8:30pm

You must register at the following electronic link:
